Anne Mienkowski v. Clarkson University et al

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

MOTION for Extension of Time

I, Anne Mienkowski, the Plaintiff, am requesting a motion to file an extension in this case in order to find counsel to represent me. I am currently 38 weeks pregnant and may go into labor at any time. My approaching due date significantly restricts my ability to focus on this case at the moment due to these circumstances. The pregnancy and post-partum period also has risks and complications associated with the birth which are medically documented and necessitate an extension. Additionally I need time to adjust and recover after childbirth. I need 4 months (120 days) postpartum of maternity leave from this case to ensure I recover appropriately along with my new baby, and have time to attend the required follow-up medical appointments. It would be extremely beneficial to be granted an extension for 120 days to provide a status report about seeking new counsel to represent me in this case.
